

3. About 80% of students at the University of Georgia (UGA) live off campus, one of the highest rates of any major university in the country. Moreover, there is little prospect for a significant reduction, even with the construction of planned dormitories. At present, ACC has no permanent town-gown relationship with UGA.

Would you support such a relationship? YES ___ NO ___

If not, why not? If so, how would you structure the relationship?

4. Some cities have created a special court solely to handle neighborhood ordinance violations. The rationale is that this court can handle cases more efficiently and with a different perspective than the criminal courts.

Do you support such a court for Athens-Clarke County? YES ___ NO ___

If not, why not? If so, how would you structure the court?

5. This year, FOFP issued a report Decline of Neighborhoods in Five Points: A Survey of 38 Residential Streets along with a complementary portfolio of photographs. Copies were made available to all sitting ACC Commissioners and to the Mayor. (Additional copies are in the Clerk of Commissioners Office in City Hall or from FOFP, 549-7298).

Have you read the Survey and looked through the portfolio? YES ___ NO ___

If you have, what is your assessment of these documents and what actions would you advocate in response?

6. ACC, which invests about $25,000 to train a police officer, consistently loses its best officers because of inadequate salaries. The ACC Police Department has requested pay rates that are within 5-8% of salaries paid by other police departments that compete for ACC officers. The current ACC Commission did not grant the request for this year's ACC budget.

Questions for incumbents:

a. Did you vote for this year's budget, which did not provide these requested pay rates?

YES___ NO___

b. Would you vote for the next budget if it includes these requested pay rates? YES___ NO___

If not, why not?

Question for challengers:

Would you vote for the next budget if it includes these requested pay rates? YES___ NO___

If not, why not?
